

Robert Meredith has worked as a professional artist since his first summer job at the age of sixteen in the design department of McNeel Monument Company in Marietta, Georgia.

Robert earned a BFA degree in drawing and painting from the University of Georgia, 1963. Lamar Dodd was my major professor.

He has forty five one-man shows from Texas to Massachusetts. They include 3 at the Parthenon in Nashville, Tennessee. A show at William Paterson College in Paterson N.J., and three at the Frederick-Nila Gallery in Longview Texas. He's had an exhibition of my paintings at St Botolph's Club, the famous art club of the Boston painters where John S. Sargent and Claud Monet were introduced to the United States. Robert has shown my paintings at the Frame House Gallery in Louisville Kentucky and has had three exhibitions at the Marietta, Cobb Museum of Art in Marietta, Georgia. His most recent exhibition was a retrospective of about 60 paintings, 30 old and 30 new, at the Creative Arts Guild in Dalton, Georgia.

Robert has paintings in the collections of the State of Tennessee and the Tennessee Fine Arts League. I also have paintings at Belmont College, Emory University, Dekalb College, Southern Polytechnical, and Kennesaw State University.

He is member of Grand Central Gallery and the Salmagundi Club in New York City. His work has been sold by the Alexander Gallery, Berry-Hill Gallery and Gallery Henoeh, all of New York City. He often participates in group shows and exhibitions and has won many prizes and awards which are numerous and too boring to list.

His collectors include Steve Martin the actor, Richard Manoogian, the number one collector of American art, Eddy Nicholson, the first man to pay one million dollars for a piece of furniture, Peter Bonaparth, President, Jones of New York and Arthur and Stephany Blank. Robert's work is included in many corporate collections including: TycoToys, Masco, Jones of New York and Wellington Management, to name a few.

He is currently represented by Ann Jackson Gallery of Roswell Georgia, the Left Bank Gallery in St. Simons Island, Georgia, Carolina Galleries in Charleston, South Carolina and by Brown and Corbin Fine Art of Boston
